Among the green hills of Altea lies a rustic-style mansion that captures the very essence of classic Spanish elegance. Gracefully nestled atop a hill, this residence unfolds an unprecedented panoramic experience with 360-degree views. From the sparkling waters of the Mediterranean to the picturesque town of Altea and the majestic mountains, every window and terrace is a viewpoint to the grandeur of nature.

The mansion, spread over two spacious levels, has an extensive 17,000 square meter plot, guaranteeing residents a private retreat. Each of the seven rooms, all with bathroom, promises a haven of tranquility. The spacious living and dining rooms, adorned with sea views, are the heart of the house, while the separate kitchen, equipped with the latest appliances, adds a touch of contemporary luxury to the mansion amidst its traditional setting.

The master suite is a testament to luxury living. With its dressing room, a private terrace with sea views and a meticulously designed ensuite bathroom, it is a sanctuary in its own right. And when the sun sets, the glow from the fireplace bathes the home in a warm golden hue, providing a serene backdrop for those precious moments.

When you go outside, the garden becomes a masterpiece of landscaping. Rustic benches are strategically placed for moments of reflection or intimate conversations. The infinity pool reflects the immensity of the sky and the blue of the Mediterranean, a symbol of limitless luxury. With ample garage spaces and additional parking, accessibility and safety are paramount.

Beyond the walls of this mansion, Altea offers its own charm. Known for its pristine beaches, rich cultural heritage and relaxed Mediterranean lifestyle, the city promises a perfect balance between relaxation and vibrant coastal life. A nerve center for artists, the city is full of galleries, craft shops and traditional markets.
